Hitler's Speech on the Treaty of Versailles

Directions: Answer the following questions based on the speech by Adolf Hitler.

- What event is Hitler referring to when he says "the sentence begins the institution of Germany"?
- What was the Treaty of Versailles?
- In the speech, Hitler argues that the Republic has failed the German people.
 - What does Hitler mean by "the Republic" in the last part of the speech?
 - According to Hitler, why was an early German "sentence of the Republic"?
- Hitler backs this up because he is argued that the Treaty of Versailles was agreed to as quickly as 1919 and back as though Germany should have continued to fight.
- What does Hitler say "new Movement", what is his reference to? Explain.
- Hitler is referring to the new movement, or the rise to power of the Nazi Party in Germany.
- According to Hitler, what does Germany need in order to prosper? How are these related to the Treaty of Versailles?
- Setting aside the New German Treaty
- Disbanding of all Germany
- And instead of the new treaty to build our nation.

As part of the Versailles Treaty Germany lost territory in Europe and saw Germany become open with Germany speaking people divided into several sections. Hitler is referring to the war to get rid of the Treaty of Versailles.

War guilt Germany had to accept the guilt for starting the war. They complained bitterly, but the Allies did not take any notice of their complaints. There were protests in the German Reichstag (Parliament) and out on the streets. It was then that he realised how bitter many people were about the Treaty. How did France react to the Treaty? Germany's colonies in Asia and Africa were taken over by Japan, Britain, France, and other nations under Allied Power. Not ready to purchase a subscription? Back to top Reactions in France were mixed. Amongst the criticizer of the treaty was Germany's Adolf Hitler. They were known as the 'Big Four'. Germany severely renounced the treaty. Thank you very much for your cooperation. Back to top When the Treaty terms were announced in June 1919, there was a mixed reaction. In 1924, Germany received huge loans from the USA to help its economy recover. Back to top Much criticism has been made of the Treaty because it was too harsh on Germany. Germany's main economic problem was not reparations but war debt, which it had planned to pay by winning the war and making other countries pay reparations. A restriction was then placed on Germany's allowing only 1000,000 soldiers to be part of it at one time. 3. League of Nations The League of Nations was set up as an international 'police force'. The Treaty of Versailles Back to top The terms of the Treaty of Versailles were announced in June 1919. More importantly, they felt that Britain and France were making themselves rich at Germany's expense and that the USA should not be helping them to do this. They also believed that the League of Nations would be a powerful force for peace. Americans were also uneasy about Wilson's scheme for a League of Nations. The main terms were: 1. The League was based on a Covenant (or agreement). British newspapers suggested that Germany would no longer threaten world peace. However, his rivals in the Republican Party dominated the US Congress. In October 1918, the Government of Germany asked President Wilson for a general armistice. Treaty of Versailles Worksheets This bundle contains 11 ready-to-use Treaty of Versailles Worksheets that are perfect for students who want to learn more about Treaty of Versailles which was a peace treaty signifying the end of the First World War between the Triple Alliance and Triple Entente. On the other hand, historians have pointed out that Germany could have been treated a lot more harshly for several reasons: Germany only accepted the Fourteen Points when it was clear they were losing the war. The treaty also forced Germany to make territorial concessions and to disarm. They also liked the fact that Germany's borders with France (the Rhineland) would be demilitarised. The Treaty of Versailles developed deep resentment from the Germans. German territories and colonies Alsace-Lorraine went to France Eupen, Moresnet and Malmédy went to Belgium North Schleswig went to Denmark (after a vote by the population) West Prussia and Posen went to Poland Danzig became a free city controlled by the League of Nations (giving Poland a seaport) Memel went to Lithuania Saar was controlled by the League of Nations (with a vote by the population to be held on the matter after 15 years) German colonies became mandates under the control of the League of Nations (in practice this usually meant Britain and France) Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania became independent states (Germany had taken these states from Russia in 1918) 5. In the harsh Treaty of Brest-Litovsk, the Germans took away 34% of Russia's population and 50% of its industry and made them pay 300 million gold roubles in reparations.
